Perricoota Trail Barham – Caldwell – Womboota – Echuca Moama

Suggested time: 8 hours
Distance: 110km
Driving time: 90 mins

Start your day of grazing and jump in the car to visit a few of the local producers. Just a few minutes separates Bundarra Berkshires (free-range pork, small goods and charcuterie), Red Gum Grove (olives, garlic and salts) and Barham Vines (specialising in rich red wines).

Just 30 minutes from Barham you will find Restdown Wines (in Caldwell), a unique organic winery that also features a beef farm and wetlands area, complete with walking trails featuring Indigenous heritage sites.

Next head approximately 20km south to the Old School Winery and Meadery, situated in the heart of the historic village of Womboota. You can sample and purchase wines and mead, which are produced using traditional processes dating back 800 years.

Follow Perricoota Road towards Echuca Moama, just before you reach Moama you can turn off to the right at the Five Mile picnic area (Murray Valley Regional Park) on the Murray River. Break open some of the supplies you've picked up along the way and enjoy an impromptu afternoon picnic by the river. If you've got bikes, there is also a mountain bike trail, which has 7km of purpose-built trails suitable for all skill levels.

Just before you reach Moama stop off at Pacdon Park, a roadside factory shop for their locally farmed produce. Then make a diversion for tastings at St Anne's Vineyard and Morrison's Winery.

Pick up a Moama Heritage Trail brochure and explore the historic sites of Moama to learn about the rich history of this riverside township.
